MMEA/MODA wishes to congratulate and thank the Music Educators of the above students for their commitment and dedication. In addition, appreciation is also given to the All State audition judges and volunteers for their time and support of our Maryland music education community.

Dr. Soo Han is the Director of Orchestral Studies at George Mason University’s Reva and Sid Dewberry Family School of Music in Fairfax, Virginia; Music Director of the Elkhart County Symphony in Indiana; and a member of the Board of Directors of the Midwest International Band and Orchestra Clinic. He is a composer and arranger with Hal Leonard, and is also a contributing editor for Essential Elements for Strings. As an active conductor, Dr. Han has appeared with numerous professional and university orchestras. He is a frequent conductor for international, all-state, regional, and honor orchestras, appearing in more than 30 states. Dr. Han is a Conn-Selmer Educational Clinician, and co-author, contributor, and managing editor for Teaching Music through Performance in Orchestra, Vol. 4. Having taught in the public schools for fifteen years, he is a passionate supporter of school music programs, and continues to remain active in instrumental classrooms throughout the country. Soo grew up in rural Pennsylvania, and now resides in Arlington, Virginia, where he has a beautiful view of the monuments of Washington, D.C. He enjoys distance running, eating amazing food, and traveling near and far with his partner, Gregory, and his faithful canine companion, Lenny.

This event is made possible in partnership with Morgan State University and the Murphy Fine Arts Center.

Thank you!
