Accompanist, Justin Klaverweiden

Justin Klaverweiden is the vocal and general music teacher at Northwest Middle School in Taneytown, Maryland. He received a bachelor's degree in vocal and general music from Towson University and a master's equivalency from Vandercook College of Music. During his tenure at Northwest, he's directed numerous musicals, led his choirs to superior ratings at county chorus festivals and conducted his sixth-grade choir in the National Anthem at Camden Yards in Baltimore. Over the past several years, he has been one of three middle school teachers to write new curriculum for middle school choruses in Maryland. He is also a member of the American Choral Directors Association and the Maryland Music Educators Association. Justin is an accomplished instrumentalist, trained in piano, banjo, and guitar. An esteemed accompanist, he has played for many local choirs and Carroll County's All-County Chorus for many years. He plays banjo as part of a "roots music" band, which was featured in VoyageBaltimore magazine, and has served as the music minister for several churches. A lover of bluegrass music, Justin frequently attends bluegrass festivals and placed first in banjo at the Berlin Fiddlers Convention.
